PREMIER PROTECTIVE & INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY – SOUTH FLORIDA

Mantrack Protection & Investigative Services, Inc. is recognized as one of the most respected and established private investigative and protective service agencies operating throughout South Florida. Since the agency's founding in 1995, Mantrack has maintained an unblemished professional record spanning more than three decades of licensed investigative and security operations.

The agency provides professional investigative services, executive protection, personal protection, security enforcement officers, and specialized investigative support to private clients, corporations, attorneys, and religious institutions requiring the highest level of discretion and professionalism.

Mantrack leadership and investigators bring extensive law-enforcement experience including service with the New York City Police Department and participation in federal task force operations. This background allows the agency to conduct operations utilizing the same professional standards and discipline expected by law enforcement agencies.

Mantrack conducts all assignments utilizing the same professionalism, ethics, documentation procedures, and operational discipline used by our law enforcement partners. Our investigative work and protective operations reflect the same level of professionalism expected by local Police Departments and Sheriff's Offices.

When security assignments require coordination with authorities, Mantrack acts accordingly with local Police Departments and Sheriff's Offices in joint efforts to create safe environments for the individuals, organizations, and communities we are assigned to protect.

HOUSES OF WORSHIP SECURITY PROTECTION PROGRAM

Mantrack Protection & Investigative Services, Inc. provides professional security protection services specifically designed to safeguard Houses of Worship throughout South Florida including churches, synagogues, and religious institutions.

Our Protection Division works directly with clergy, administrators, and community leaders to establish visible security presence and proactive safety planning that ensures congregations may gather and worship safely.

Security officers maintain a respectful presence while remaining alert to potential safety concerns and suspicious activity. Officers are trained to respond appropriately to security incidents while coordinating with local Police Departments and Sheriff's Offices when necessary.

Protection services include security enforcement officers for houses of worship, armed and unarmed officers, executive protection for clergy and leadership, personal protection services, security risk assessments, and congregation or event security operations.

MODERNIZED ACTIVE SHOOTER PROTOCOLS & THREAT PREVENTION

Modern security threats require proactive planning and coordinated response strategies. Mantrack Protection & Investigative Services, Inc. utilizes modernized active shooter prevention and response protocols designed to protect congregations, employees, and the public in high-risk situations.

These protocols emphasize early threat recognition, rapid communication with law enforcement, controlled evacuation procedures, and immediate protective response measures designed to minimize risk and protect human life.

Mantrack security officers are trained to observe behavioral indicators that may signal potential threats. Suspicious activity recognition, situational awareness, and communication with local law enforcement agencies are key elements in preventing incidents before they occur.

In the event of a critical incident, officers are trained to follow coordinated response procedures that prioritize life safety, guide occupants to safe exit routes when possible, and immediately notify Police Departments and Sheriff's Offices so responding officers can take control of the situation.

These modernized protocols reflect nationally recognized security practices and mirror the situational awareness and response standards commonly used by law enforcement professionals.

Through preventative planning, professional security presence, and coordination with law enforcement partners, Mantrack Protection & Investigative Services, Inc. helps create safe and secure environments for the communities and institutions we are entrusted to protect.
